Pennsylvania’s JJSES
Where Are We?
Where Are We Going?

Keith B. Snyder, Deputy Director
Pa. Juvenile Court Judges’ Commission

SPEP Orientation and Rater’s Training
July 15, 2013
It All Began with “Models for Change”

1. Aftercare
2. Disproportionate Minority Contact
3. Mental Health / Juvenile Justice Coordination
   • Policy Statement
   • Self-incrimination Protections
   • MAYSI
   • Diversion
   • Family Engagement
   • EPISCenter at Penn State
   • MA Funding for “Blue Print” Programs
Transition to JJSES

Summer of 2010

• McArthur “leaving town”

• Various initiatives needed to be “under one roof” for funding / sustainability purposes

• Interest in “evidence-based practices” designed to reduce recidivism

• Concept of a Juvenile Justice System Enhancement Strategy (JJSES) was “born”
  – JJSES Leadership Team created
  – JJSES “Statement of Purpose” Developed
JJSES Statement of Purpose

We dedicate ourselves to working in partnership to enhance the capacity of Pennsylvania’s juvenile justice system to achieve its balanced and restorative justice mission by – Employing evidence-based practices with fidelity at every stage of the juvenile justice process

– Collecting and analyzing the data necessary to measure the results of these efforts; and, with this knowledge,
– Striving to continuously improve the quality of our decisions, services, and programs
…..and Along Comes JDAI

Winter of 2010

• Casey Foundation approves Pennsylvania’s participation in its Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI)

Initial JDAI Activities

• Casey Foundation and CCLP staff orient counties potentially participating in JDAI
• Four counties volunteer to participate
• Formal Kick-off Occurs in Fall 2011
……and Along Comes JJSIP  (summer 2011)

• Juvenile Justice System Improvement Project
  – Center for Juvenile Justice Reform (Georgetown)
  – 1 of 4 states selected to participate
  – Berks County is PA’s pilot site

• JJSIP is Consistent with Evidence-based Practice
  – Diversion
  – Delinquency Prevention
  – Risk / Need Assessment
  – Case Planning
  – Evidence-based Programs
  – Standardized Program Evaluation Protocol (SPEP)
  – Recidivism Reduction Strategy
Consultants, Consultants, Consultants

.......We’ve Made Many Friends, Along The Way
